For Sale.
THE subscriber offers for sale a tract

joining the lands of Haywood Poote and Dennis Johnston. The greater part of this tract is fine meadow land, abundantly supplied with water. Also one other tract of 261 acres, on the Ravensworth road, about 6 miles from Alexandria, and one mile from the first mentioned tract, adjoining land of Thos. Janney and Mr.
M'Pherson: the greater part of this tract ceptible of improvement from the use of fore the first of January next, they will then be for rent.

CHARLES SIMMS.
Gill Nets! Gill Nets!
To the Citizens of Washington, Freder-
rick, and Montgomery counties.

A Maryland will sit in the course of a few weeks, I take the liberty of calling the attention of the people of the upper counties to the subject of Gill Nets; that all those who may agree with me in opinion, may unite in petitions to the Legislature to pass such laws as may effectually prevent the use of them hereafter in the Potomac.
Since the introduction of these Nets into our waters, the people of the upper counties have experienced the most pernicious effects of this practice. It is a fact well known, that many persons at the last season, after leaving their homes, with their teams, at the most busy season of the year, and travelling, perhaps, from 50 to 100 miles to reach the nearest landings, and after being detained there a considerable time, exposed to the inclemencies of the weather, and often without any shelter but what was afforded to them by the coverings of their waggon, and while their crops too were suffering greatly at home, were obliged at last to return without any fish. Some procured their Herrings, but not one in ten could get the Shad they wanted for their families. These Gill Nets, it is said, are fished almost exclusively by persons from the Eastward—a covetous people they must be:—they would take the bread from our mouths
if they could do it—and they certainly will the fish if left to themselves. It is stated they had 500 vessels engaged in this business during the last season;
such a number of Nets will form such an obstruction in the river as to keep back the Shad altogether, and by breaking the schools of Herrings will render even the catching of them uncertain. And what adds to our grievance, the fish that are caught in this manner are not disposed of to our citizens, but are cured on board the vessels that take them, and carried as an article of traffic to some other portions of the Union, or, perhaps, to foreign parts.

The people of the upper counties are peculiarly situated; living remote from any of the Rivers, with which nature has so bountifully watered our state, they have only an opportunity afforded to them once a year of procuring fish of any kind for their families; and it rests with the Legislature to determine whether they shall be deprived of this right, attended as it is too, with great sacrifice, expense and trouble; and it must be known too to the members that may compose that body, that fish, from long use and custom, have become indispensably necessary to our families.

If any doubt should exist as to the facts herein stated, I have only to observe that they will be entirely removed by referring to any one from either of the upper counties, who attended at the landings either of the two last seasons, particularly the last.
Having said much more than I intended, I have only to call upon all those who feel an interest in this business, to lose no time in getting signatures to such a petition as I have recommended,—and also to see and converse upon the subject with such persons as they may think proper to send as delegates to the next General Assembly; and I have also to request
the favor of the editors of the Frederricktown papers, to give these remarks a place in their respective papers, that the subject may be fully brought before the people of the upper counties.

Exchange & Broker's Office,
Georgetown, District of Columbia.
ROMULUS RIGGS,
At his office, next door below Craw-ford's tavern, Bridge-st. Georgetown, will exchange all kinds of Bank Notes on the most reasonable terms.—All persons who may have notes on the banks of North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia, would do well to call on him, as he is largely in the purchase of that kind of money, and will take it on the most reasonable terms.—Persons travelling to the Western Country may at all times get the Bank Notes of the Western Banks at a fair discount, by calling at his Office. For the information of all persons throughout the U.
States, R. Riggs makes it known, that all of the Banks of the District of Columbia pay their notes on demand in specie; and it would be much to the advantage of the merchants, and trading to the South and west, to encourage the circulation of the Notes of the Banks of Georgetown, Washington and Alexandria, as it will at all times answer for remittances to the large commercial and Atlantic towns.—All persons emigrating or travelling to the westward should be very particular and take the Notes of the Banks of the District of Columbia, as they will find them the most current, there being no counterfeits on the District Banks. The Merchants' Bank of Alexandria has long since failed—all persons should be on their guard, as they will be imposed on.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1818.

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT AT WASHINGTON.

Thursday, December 3.

A resolution from the committee to whom it was referred to consider of the expediency of taking off the duty from imported salt, was brought in by General Smith, declaring that it was not expedient to take it off at this time. This resolution was referred to a committee of the whole, and ordered for Monday.

Mr. Bryan was excused, at his own request, from serving on the bank inquiring committee.

On motion of General Harrison, resolved that the committee on public lands inquire into the expediency of continuing in force the law of last session, suspending for a limited time the sale and forfeiture of lands for failure of completing the payments thereon, and to report what further relief it may be proper to give to persons indebted to the U. States for the purchase of lands. This was done, no doubt, with a view to the condition of the various banks in the United States.

On motion of Mr. Talmadge, resolved that the committee on naval affairs be directed to inquire into the expediency of increasing the amount of the security to be hereafter required from navy agents, and also of requiring security to a greater amount from those now in office.

The whole of the day, after those resolutions passed, that is, from about half after one till four o'clock, was taken up with arguing the Beaumarchais claim, on which Mr. Hopkinson delivered a most luminous, impressive and argumentative speech. So far from this country being indebted to Beaumarchais, he endeavored to demonstrate that this country was his creditor for one million. Louis XVI. having compelled this country to account with him for three millions advanced for its service, Dr. Franklin was the person who transacted the business—while of that sum of three millions, one only reached the coffers of this country; for the other million, Beaumarchais was called upon by this country to account, but never did. Mr. Hopkinson, advertising to a letter written upon the subject of this country with his own hand, spoke of the cruel and unjust fate of that excellent prince in a manner that deeply interested and excited strong sympathy in the house. He was followed by Colonel Ervine, of S. Carolina, who exerted himself in maintenance of the claim of Beaumarchais.

Mr. Johnson of Ky. from the military committee, reported a bill authorizing the establishment of a national armory on the western waters.

OBITUARY.

Here let us muse on human life,
This scene of danger, toil and strife,
Whose morning sun in splendor shines,
Whose evening orb in gloom declines,
Whose course is like the transient flow'r,
That blooms and withers in an hour;
'Tis gloomy as the troubled skies,
When broad and black the tempest rises;
His tenure is as short and frail
As morning dew, or summer hail;
'Tis ebbing like the mountain stream;
'Tis fading like fancy's airy dream.

With no ordinary feelings of sincere grief we announce the decease of Mr. WILLIAM S. EVILETH, of the U. S. corps of engineers. The premature death of this excellent young gentleman, has cast the veil of sorrow over the fond expectations and glowing hopes of his family, and has lulled into everlasting rest the anticipations of his future usefulness which were cherished in the hearts of his friends and associates. It were futile, even in the pen of friendship, to depict a character, teeming as it does with virtuous and generous actions; but all who were acquainted with Lieutenant Evileth admired and esteemed him, and those who enjoyed the pleasure of his intimacy ardently loved him.

William S. Evileth was born in the town of Alexandria, the 4th of February, 1797. He early evinced a disposition to embrace the life of the soldier, and in August, 1813, received a cadet's warrant. He continued with sedulous application to his studies at West Point, about twelve months, at which time his talents were so eminently conspicuous, that at the unanimous suggestion of his superiors, he was promoted, notwithstanding his extreme youth, to the post of assistant professor in the engineer department at the academy; the duties of which office he performed to general satisfaction—until the government, justly appreciating the importance of his services, in 1815 tendered him a commission in the corps.—Leaving West Point, he repaired to New-castle, (Del.) where, in conjunction with captain Babcock, of the engineers, he superintended the erection of fortifications in that vicinity; when, after a furlough of a few weeks, he was ordered to the northern lines—and in the discharge of the duties of his profession, of late, an accident consigned him to a watery grave.

The circumstance of Mr. Evileth's being an officer in so important a corps as that of the engineers, is perhaps one of the most convincing proofs (if proofs, indeed, were wanted) of the excellence of his talents, and the high respect in which he was held by his country. His short though active life evinced a total disregard to the paucity of office: anxious only for the honor and interest of his country, he strove to be a useful ornament to the military profession, and his services have proved him so.

In private life his character was unblemished—filial in his deportment to his mother—honorable and sincere in his attachments, the firm and affectionate friend, and the moral and useful citizen.

His memory will ever be cherished by his surviving friends, and while the tear of sympathy we mingle with those of his bereaved and excellent parents, we must be reconciled to the providences of that God whose prerogative alone it is to give and to take away.

J. H. S.

Washington, December 2.

We had not time yesterday, to express our satisfaction that the House of Representatives had appointed a committee to inspect the books of the Bank of the United States, and report upon its state and proceedings; that the measure had been adopted without passion; and that, after debate and amendments, the motion had assumed a shape so unobjectionable, as to secure to it an unanimous vote—we say unanimously, because no dissenting voice was heard.

Since our last, the names of the persons to compose the committee have been announced, and we have fresh reason to congratulate our readers on the prospect of a fair, full, and unprejudiced report on a subject on which much excitement exists. It would be a great error to suppose that this measure is the result of a disposition unfriendly to the Bank, of a suspicion of the integrity of its proceedings—much less of a disposition to prostrate or cripple the Institution. There are in Congress, no doubt, many who are hostile to the Bank from various motives, and others who condemn certain of its measures.

But the course which has been taken had the support of the friends as well as the adversaries of the Bank, and, it is certain, will be attended with results useful to the country, and, it is hoped, valuable to the Bank. We shall see with what reason the Institution has been assailed, and the characters of its Directors impeached. We hope the defence the Directors will derive from the opportunity of exhibiting their books and proceedings, will be in proportion to the patience and equanimity with which they have borne the attempts which have been made to turn the tide of popular feeling against the Bank of the United States, as the source of the present derangement of the pre-existing currency.

This measure having been adopted by the House of Representatives, as well for public information as for their own, we shall not be left hereafter to conjecture, or to mere assertion, for facts connected with the subject. We shall wait with patience for the report of the committee, with full confidence of its presenting us an impartial and enlightened view of the subject of its investigation.

Bride, Esq. for a perusal of them. They contain advices from London to the 13th, and from Aix-la-Chapelle to the 7th of October.

The evacuation of France by the allied troops is confirmed. A new levy has been ordered in Russia for the army and navy. It is to consist, of one man out of every five hundred, throughout the empire.

LATEST FROM EUROPE.

By the arrival of the brig Factor, captain Curran, from Havre, we have received Paris papers to the 20th of Oct. and Havre to the 22d, containing London dates to the 14th of that month.

We have translated for this evening's Commercial Advertiser, as much as our limits and time will admit of. Capt. Curran is the bearer of dispatches for government, which were forwarded by this morning's mail.

LONDON, Oct. 14.

The queen remains pretty much the same. Aix-la-Chapelle, Oct. 14. Lord Stewart, ambassador of England to Vienna, arrived yesterday.

The Emperor of Russia walked out yesterday morning, on foot, without attendants, and made a visit to the Princess of Trowbesky. A crowd followed the monarch, who saluted them in the most affable manner.

Almost all the bankers have quitted this place.

LYONS, Oct. 13.

At the beginning of September, the importations of Foreign Corn were greatly increased, but towards the end of this month they were immense; and if the winds had been favorable for the arrival of ships from the Baltic, they would have been still greater. If our ports had not been shut against importations from the Lower Countries and Germany, Corn would have experienced a considerable fall.

Peas and Beans, which had experienced a considerable rise at the beginning while they remained in the hands of speculators, have experienced a fall of 30 shillings per quarter, and latterly they have fallen 20 shillings.

Oats are slow, on account of immense importations and great quantities in store.

The demand for cotton is almost suspended, on account of the great sales by the East India Company, which take place on the 18th.

The total importation of Cotton during this year, compared with those of last year, are as follows:—

	From Jan. 1, 1818, to 30th Sept.	From Jan. 1, 1817, to 30th Sept.
United States,	187,000	174,500
Brazil,	126,500	60,500
East Indies,	169,500	75,500
West Indies,	34,000	36,500
	517,000	347,000

Augmentation this year, 170,000 bags.

Tobacco is slow, and have experienced a fall of 1-2d. to 1d. a pound: The supply has considerably increased.

LIVERPOOL, Oct. 10.

Cottons are on the decline—Orleans and Brazil have fallen 1-4d.

The American brig Margaret, Mellus, arrived from Boston at Havre, 26th Oct.

The American ship Exeter, Lander, arrived at Havre, from Salem, in 23 days.

From the New-York Gazette, Dec. 1.

The Revenue Cutter came up last evening, and brought us news of the arrival below, of the ship Euphrates, De Cost, in 34 days from Liverpool; the brig William-Henry, from Havre; and brig Helen, from Gibraltar.

Captain Cahoon brought up with him the ship news of the Euphrates, and a Liverpool paper of the 24th October, from which we hastily make some extracts.

The ship Union, had arrived in the Shannon from Quebec, after a passage of 14 days. This is the shortest run from America ever remembered.

Several commercial houses at Paris, have been informed from their correspondents, that the American government has offered 30 millions francs to the King of the two Sicilies, for the cession of the port of Syracuse, which has been refused; and that 14 millions had been offered for the Island of Elba, which had also been refused.

Prices at Liverpool, Oct. 20.—American Wheat 1 1/2 to 1 1/4. Do. sweet flour, 43 to 47s. Sour 37 to 39.

The expedition to the North Pole had returned. The highest latitude the ships ever attained was about 80, 30, long. 12, east.

The London Morning Chronicle, of the 22nd Oct. was also sent up from the Euphrates; it states, that the stock Exchange attributes the late rise in the funds to a cause very different from political considerations. It is not owing to the treaty concluded at Aix-la-Chapelle, for the removal of the troops from France, since that measure was long ago decided on; nor to any confidence in the perfect understanding that subsists among the potentates and ministers there assembled; nor yet to the question respecting the renewal of cash payment, for that they are aware remains undetermined.—But it is believed that the contractors for the last unfortunate loan, with a view to transfer the load from their own shoulders to that of the public, have borrowed a large sum of money at 5 per cent. in order to bring up all the floating stock in the market, and thereby get rid of their omnium without loss. This at least is the report in the alley.

The Duke of Ragusa had taken command of the Royal guards on service at the Thuilleries.

The reports of the assembling of Davarian troops are destitute of foundation.

The treaty for the evacuation of France by the allied troops, is published in the Morning Chronicle. It was signed at Aix-la-Chapelle on the 9th of Oct. The army of occupation was to have been withdrawn on or previous to the 30th of that month. The treaty was ratified by the signatures of the Sovereigns on the 17th.

The same paper says, "We understand that Mr. GALLATIN, Ambassador of the U. States at Paris, left London on the 21st, for Dover, on his return to the French capital. Nothing has yet transpired as to the result of the negotiations in which his excellency has been engaged (with Messrs. Robertson and Goulbourn, our Plenipotentiaries,) during his stay here."

The Queen was still alive, and no hopes were entertained of her recovery.

The London Courier announces, that Lord Ellenborough is to resign his office as Chief Justice, and that Mr. Justice Abbott is to be appointed his successor.

IMPORTANT DUTY OF HAYTI.

The following translation of an order issued by the government of Hayti, was politely furnished the editors of the Philadelphia American Centinel by a commercial friend of this city.

Extract of a letter of the secretary of state.

Liberty. Equality.

REPUBLIC OF HAYTI.

Port-au-Prince, 17th October, 1818.

In the 15th year of Independence.

The Secretary of State, to the principal Administrator of Port-au-Prince.

The decree of the 15th Oct. 1814, in the 11th year of the Independence, issued by the late Alexander Pétion, that reduced to five per cent. the duty of importations, on all British manufactures, has been subject to so many different interpretations, (No. 103, sect. 3d.) citizen administrator, that the executive power desiring that all reclamations should cease, which have been made by foreign merchants, has determined on the manner in which every administrator shall hereafter act on the subject.

The intent of the decree was to encourage the commerce of Great Britain, and to facilitate more particularly all British manufactures, the intention on the part of the government being evaded, and instead of being introduced in vessels under the British flag, this decree has been made use of as a pretext for introducing merchandizes said to be of British manufacture, and arriving in our ports, in American, Swedish, Danish and Prussian vessels, &c. &c.

In consequence of which all merchandise of British manufacture arriving in British vessels alone shall be subject to five per cent. import duty.

Whereas those said to be of the same manufacture, and imported in vessels of other nations, shall remain subject to 10 per cent. as all other merchandizes.

You will issue your orders to the other collector of your port, that he may put the same into immediate execution which remains under your personal responsibility.

You will have the same posted up at the Custom House, in order that it may be known to all the foreign merchants, and you will acknowledge the reception of the same.

I am, your's, &c. &c.

(Signed) J. N. C. IMBERT.

Certified conformably to the original by the principal administrator.

The ports of Dominica were opened for 6 months from the 30th September last, for the importation of all kinds of bread stuffs, live stock, and lumber, in any vessel, and from any port.

Ordered, That leave be given to Henry Nicholson to sink a well, six feet in the clear, and place a pump therein, on the west side of Water street, in the centre of the square between Cameron and Queen streets, and that the expense thereof be deducted from his taxes as they may become due, and the same to be charged to the second ward.

Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Potomac creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaster acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, wheat, and corn, and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole; it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary out-house, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvas backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Horses, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensils and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment. Letters must be addressed to me at Pollock Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.
September 4 GEORGE MASON.

Valuable Property for Sale.

THE subscriber is desirous of selling a handsomely situated farm, on Hunting creek, in Fairfax county Virginia, adjoining the Mount Vernon estate and the lands of general Thomson Mason, four miles from Alexandria, containing about 240 acres, 80 of which are in wood—40 to 50 in thriving meadow of clover and timothy—a part of the residue recently seeded with wheat and rye, and clover, last spring—the whole enclosed with a new post and rail fence. The improvements are, a comfortable and convenient frame dwelling house and kitchen, smoke house, poultry house, granary and stables.—There is on this place a rich and productive garden, and a large body of marsh meadow, from which may be saved annually 100 tons of hay, nearly as nutritious as the best timothy or clover.—With the farm would be sold a number of very valuable horses, cows and sheep; waggon, carts, and a variety of farming utensils and household and kitchen furniture; corn, oats and rye, and 40 tons hay.—Also, adjoining the farm above described, a farm containing 160 acres, recently enclosed, on which is a brick house, which a trifling expense would render comfortable. The soil is excellent, and a considerable part might be easily converted into meadow.—It would be sold with the other or separately.—Also, a number of valuable servants, male and female. To prevent unnecessary application, he would observe, that they will only be sold to persons residing in the District or its vicinity, and not to be carried from it. The subscriber will also sell the greater part of his household furniture, which is new and handsome. For terms of all or any part of the above property, apply to NOBLET HERBERT, esq.

CHARLES SIMMS.

Gill Nets! Gill Nets!

To the Citizens of Washington, Frederick, and Montgomery counties. S the General Assembly of Maryland will sit in the course of a few weeks, I take the liberty of calling the attention of the people of the upper counties to the subject of Gill Nets; that all those who may agree with me in opinion, may unite in petitions to the Legislature to pass such laws as may effectually prevent the use of them hereafter in the Potomac. Since the introduction of these Nets into our waters, the people of the upper counties have experienced the most pernicious effects of this practice. It is a fact well known, that many persons at the last season, after leaving their homes, with their teams, at the most busy season of the year, and travelling, perhaps, from 50 to 100 miles to reach the nearest landings, and after being detained there a considerable time, exposed to the inclemencies of the weather, and often without any shelter but what was afforded to them by the coverings of their waggon, while their crops too were suffering greatly at home, were obliged at last to return without any fish. Some procured their Herrings, but not one in ten could get the Shad they wanted for their families. These Gill Nets, it is said, are fished almost exclusively by persons from the Eastward—a covetous people they must be:—they would take the bread from our mouths if they could do it—and they certainly will the fish if left to themselves. It is stated they had 500 vessels engaged in this business during the last season; such a number of Nets will form such an obstruction in the river as to keep back the Shad altogether, and by breaking the schools of Herrings will render even the catching of them uncertain. And what adds to our grievance, the fish that are caught in this manner are not disposed of to our citizens, but are cured on board the vessels that take them, and carried as an article of traffic to some other portions of the Union, or, perhaps, to foreign parts. The people of the upper counties are peculiarly situated; living remote from any of the Rivers, with which nature has so bountifully watered our state, they have only an opportunity afforded to them once a year of procuring fish of any kind for their families; and it rests with the Legislature to determine whether they shall be deprived of this right, attended as it is too, with great sacrifice, expense and trouble; and it must be known too to the members that may compose that body, that fish, from long use and custom, have become indispensably necessary to our families. If any doubt should exist as to the facts herein stated, I have only to observe that they will be entirely removed by referring to any one from either of the upper counties, who attended at the landings either of the two last seasons, particularly the last. Having said much more than I intended, I have only to call upon all those who feel an interest in this business, to lose no time in getting signatures to such a petition as I have recommended,—and also to see and converse upon the subject with such persons as they may think proper to send as delegates to the next General Assembly; and I have also to request the favor of the editors of the Fredericktown papers, to give these remarks a place in their respective papers, that the subject may be fully brought before the people of the upper counties.
